Personal Reflection

- Your own personal reflections, what you have learned about yourself, and your personal growth should be evident throughout the presentation.
- This could include, but is not limited to:
 - How your career paths have changed or stayed the same through the process and why.
 - What you discovered as strengths/needs about yourself throughout the career portfolio process.
 - How the portfolio process influenced your choices in the course/elective selection process for classes at BASH and/or part-time job employment.

Visual Aids & Professionalism

- The use of technology is expected for the visual aids (Google Slides)
- If you choose to imbed a video in your presentation, be sure the video does not monopolize the presentation. A video should add or enhance the presentation, not take the place of the presentation.
- You should be professional in your: dress, mannerisms, demeanors, and language.
- You MUST bring your laptop to your presentation.
- You must embed your resume into your presentation.

As always, if you have any questions, please contact your HR teacher, Mrs. Bright, or school counselor.
